

Debating Emancipation Rubric

Emancipation Proclamation or Inauguration Affirmation Rubric
	4	3	2	1
Declaration	Provides a clear and concise declaration of their decision.	Provides a somewhat clear declaration of their decision.	Provides an ambiguous declaration of their decision.	No declaration is made by the Cabinet group.
Reasoning	Provides, at least, three detailed arguments defending the declaration.	Provides at least two detailed arguments defending the declaration.	Weak defense of declaration – few arguments with little explanation.	No supporting reasoning to defend declaration.
Syntax	Correct, grammar, spelling, and punctuation are used in writing declaration; and excellent penmanship.	Few errors in grammar, spelling, and punctuation when writing declaration; and legible penmanship.	Multiple errors in grammar, spelling, and punctuation when writing declaration; and a little hard to read.	Extreme errors in grammar, spelling, and punctuation when writing declaration; and very hard to read.
Total Points: /12	Comments, Suggestions, Questions:			