FORD'S THEATRE SOCIETY ANNOUNCES FULL CASTING FOR

Twelve Angry Men

by Reginald Rose; directed by Sheldon Epps
January 18 to February 17, 2019
Tickets Now On Sale

Washington, D.C. — Ford's Theatre Society announced casting for its new production of Reginald Rose's classic courtroom drama Twelve Angry Men, playing from January 18 to February 17, 2019. The production features Erik King (Dexter) as the dissenting Juror 8, Bru Ajueyitsi, Christopher Bloch, Eric Hissom, Sean-Maurice Lynch, Brandon McCoy, Jason B. McIntosh, Lawrence Redmond, Michael Russotto, Bueka Uwemedimo, Craig Wallace, Elan Zafir and Paz López. The play is directed by Sheldon Epps.

In Twelve Angry Men, tensions run high as a lone juror argues the innocence of a teenager accused of murder. In this provocatively resonant American drama, 12 jurors from different backgrounds revisit the evidence, debate the issue of reasonable doubt and confront each other's personal biases. Broadway director Sheldon Epps ignites a conversation about how prejudice obstructs the quest for justice.

"I've chosen to do the play with six black actors and six white actors. In truth, the play can and has been cast in any number of ways. But this casting choice most directly addresses the issues that I hope to explore," said Twelve Angry Men director Sheldon Epps.

"It is all about the judgements and biases that people bring into a room and the still rampant cultural divide that (deny it though we may) very often exists between races in our country. I hope that what we learn is that the only way to begin getting around all those issues is to acknowledge that they exist. Then we can move forward, just as the characters do in the play," Epps continued.

Tickets for Twelve Angry Men are now on sale and range from $17-$64. The play is recommended for ages 12 and older. The performance is 2 hours.

Twelve Angry Men is made possible by our 2018–2019 Season Sponsor: Chevron. This production is also made possible by Lead Underwriter: Siemens Corporation as well as the following Underwriters: ConocoPhillips, Fluor Corporation, The Home Depot, KMPG LLP and Lockheed Martin Corporation

Ford's Theatre Society

Ford's Theatre Society was founded under the guidance of executive producer Frankie Hewitt, who, during her 35-year tenure, established Ford's as a living, working theatre producing performances that highlighted the diversity of the American experience. Since the arrival of Paul R. Tetreault as Director, critics and the theatregoing public have recognized Ford's for the superior quality of its artistic programming. With works from the Tony-nominated Come From Away and the nationally acclaimed Big River, to the world premieres of Meet John Doe, The Heavens Are Hung In Black, Liberty Smith, Necessary Sacrifices, The Widow Lincoln and The Guard, Ford's Theatre is making its mark on the American theatre landscape. In the past decade, the mission of Ford's Theatre Society expanded to include education as a central pillar. This expansion led to the creation and construction of the Center for Education and Leadership, which opened in February 2012. Under the current leadership of Board of Trustees Chairman Phebe N. Novakovic and through the lens of Lincoln's leadership and legacy, Ford's today endeavors to advance Lincoln's "unfinished work" with programs and performances that cultivate empathy, encourage dialogue and bridge divides in our American life.
