Online Schedule
Sunday, July 25 to Friday, July 30, 2021

Sunday, July 25, 2021
1:00 p.m. - 2:15 p.m. EDT
- Welcome! Build community with your cohort and explore the contemporary memorial landscape of Washington, D.C.
- Introduction to Reflective Practice: How perspective-taking and reflection promote learning.

Monday, July 26, 2021
1:00 p.m. - 2:15 p.m. EDT
- Remembering Sites of Tragedy: Exploring how memory changes over time, lecture and discussion with Dr. Ken Foote

Tuesday, July 27, 2021
1:00 p.m. - 2:15 p.m. EDT
- Realities of Reconstruction in and around Washington, lecture and discussion with Dr. Edna Greene Medford
4:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. EDT
- Facilitated Discussion with your cohort

Wednesday, July 28, 2021
1:00 p.m. - 2:15 p.m. EDT
- In the Neighborhood: Exploring D.C.’s African American history and the neighborhood community of Ford’s Theatre with C.R. Gibbs

Thursday, July 29, 2021
1:00 p.m. - 2:15 p.m. EDT
- Memorializing Reconstruction Dr. Kate Masur
4:00 p.m. – 5:00 pm. EDT
- Where can we go from here? Plan for the school year ahead with the help of your cohort.

Friday, July 30, 2021
1:00 p.m. - 2:15 p.m. EDT
- Monuments and Race, lecture and discussion with Kevin M. Levin
- Final reflection

-- subject to change --
WHAT TO EXPECT:

- Successful completion of the program certifies 20 hours of professional development.
- Graduate Credit is available through Trinity University Washington for a fee.
- Approximately 2 hours of additional material will be assigned for participants to complete before each video-meeting, totaling a daily commitment of approximately three to four hours.
- Set in Stone is open for up to 100 educators of grades 3 – 12. Participants will be assigned learning cohorts of 10-20 fellow educators.
- We are committed to building a professional learning community online. Forge lasting connections with peer educators and network with museum educators.
- Improve historical thinking skills and gain confidence tackling historical complexities.
- Reflect on your personal understandings of the Civil War, monuments and memorialization and their impact on your teaching.
- Learn new strategies, resources and digital platforms to apply inside your classroom and to support remote learning.
- Program staff will be available in Zoom for extra questions and conversation immediately following each video-meeting.